

Knowledge for Aviation Maintenance Professionals (KAMP)

KAMP is a free quarterly program designed to provide aviation maintenance professionals with an opportunity to expand or refresh their knowledge base on subjects pertinent to maintaining technical proficiency. Entitled Aviation Maintenance Never Events, this human factors training program is being offered by Mr. Jay Dankoff of Convergent Performance.

Directions: There will be plenty of parking. Access the building through the main office entryway on the south side of main building. Signs will point you to the classroom area.
